- Mr. Selover explained the connection between the federal Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act and the partnership between the commission and GOYFF.
- A brief overview of the Title II Formula Grants program was provided.
- Mr. Selover referenced other responsibilities of the commission to be conducted in coordination with GOYFF, including:
 - Seeking and gathering input from juveniles in the justice system
 - Submitting a report to the governor and legislature
 - Serving as the State Council for Interstate Juvenile Supervision
- Mr. Dennis Pickering asked whether the Children's Justice (Task Force) would continue under the new executive order or if it had been moved. Mr. Selover advised that the task force has been moved to the Governor's Council on Child Safety and Family Empowerment.
- Ms. Maria Fuentes added an in-depth overview of the commission's change of focus outlined in the governor's executive order.
- Mr. Pickering inquired whether the task force, when appropriate, would present to the Arizona Juvenile Justice Commission and thanked Ms. Nannetti for the work she has done to support the Children's Justice Act programming and purpose. Ms. Fuentes stated the task force would be available to periodically share information with the commission, acknowledging the crossover between child welfare and juvenile justice and the need for both systems to inform each other to further the work. Ms. Fuentes echoed Mr. Pickering's gratitude and thanked the members who volunteered to serve on both work groups.

Juvenile Justice System Updates

- Mr. Joseph Kelroy, Juvenile Justice Services Division (JJSD) Director with the Arizona Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC), provided an update of the county juvenile probation system, which included a summary of procedural changes impacted by the coronavirus pandemic.
- Highlights of Mr. Kelroy's presentation include:
 - Overall, while cases of Covid-19 have climbed, the county juvenile probation, detention and court services have continued to provide services without any major setbacks.
 - The Chief Justice has issued multiple administrative orders to provide guidance on how courts should function during the pandemic pursuant to laws that dictate what hearings must be conducted in person versus those that can be conducted remotely.
 - Beginning March 15, employees at the AOC have been teleworking, with various personnel, including some justices and judges, working onsite as necessary.
 - Mr. Kelroy has been holding weekly meetings with juvenile court directors and the Department of Health Services to discuss managing services in light of Covid-19, ensuring all necessary precautions are made to minimize risk.
 - The chief justice has been meeting with presiding judges and AOC directors twice per week to ensure communication remains strong.
 - Many judges are working from home. A few judges had contracted the virus, but have since recovered and are back to work.
 - Probation officers are using a mix of personal, audio and video methods for contacting youth and families.
 - Detention is the most challenging function to manage due to the close contact involved with detained youth. Incoming juveniles are quarantined for 14 days to prevent infecting the general population. PPE equipment has been used by detention staff when contacting incoming youth.

- In-person visitation has been suspended, but youth are still able to meet with their attorneys and psychologists who are providing assessments.
- Tele-counseling services have been increased in for both youth in detention and on probation.
- Mr. Kelroy thanked the Department of Child Safety and the Department of Juvenile Corrections for their continued communication and cross-systems collaboration.
- A four-phase return plan for the courts began this Monday with phase 1, which is 50 percent return to the office for the Supreme Court. For the superior courts, probation is operating at about 90 percent during this phase. Throughout the process, the phase-in will be watched closely and administrators are ready to pull back if necessary.
- The Supreme Court published a plan B document that included recommendations to address challenges related to returning to work. A list of the administrative orders can be viewed on the Supreme Court website: azcourts.gov.
- Given the county budget challenges, the AOC and DCS are working to provide as much support as possible to ensure staff are equipped with the necessary PPE equipment and cleaning supplies.
- Ms. Nannetti explained that courtrooms now require masks, and asked everyone to share this news with anyone they may know who is planning to attend a court hearing.
- Ms. Wodraska asked whether the procedural changes have impacted or changed educational programs within detention. Mr. Kelroy stated that education and programming have continued with a mix of teachers and staff, and maintaining appropriate distances has been a major focus for ensuring safety.
- Ms. Maria Dodge stated the freeze on in-person visitation has been difficult for youth who are unable to see their parents and asked Mr. Kelroy whether he knew when it would be reinstated or if additional telephone or video visitation is being offered. Mr. Kelroy acknowledged detention has halted in-person visits from family members to prevent people from coming in and possibly infecting the population, and phone and video calls have been increased as a result, but also advised no date has yet been decided for resuming in-person visits. Ms. Dodge stated the Durango Juvenile Detention Center has a very limited number of phone lines and asked whether there are any plans to remedy this problem. Mr. Kelroy advised he would ask the chief of probation whether any arrangements have been made to address this. Mr. Kelroy also advised that the Southeast Facility Juvenile Detention Center has temporarily closed, and all juveniles are currently being held at the Durango facility.
- Ms. Dodge expressed overall satisfaction of with the court's management of Covid-19 from her point of view. Mr. Kelroy thanked Ms. Dodge for her input.
- Mr. Jeff Hood, director at the Arizona Department of Juvenile Corrections (ADJC), gave an update on juvenile corrections operations. Highlights of the presentation include:
 - Adobe Mountain School currently houses 218 youth. Of these 186 have been committed during the 11 months of state fiscal year 2020, compared to 195 youth committed during SFY 2019.
 - The department has 147 youth supervised in the community, of which 76 are youth under interstate compact. In 2018, there were 34 incoming youth under interstate supervision, with 29 outgoing, compared to 2019, with 53 incoming and 38 outgoing.
 - ADJC is due for a Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) audit this year. The department has received two audits in the past, both of which found the agency 100 percent compliant with PREA requirements. The audit was originally scheduled in May, but was postponed due to the pandemic. It has been rescheduled for July 13 through 17. Mr. Hood stated the appropriate staff are preparing for the audit, and he is confident the department will once again be in full compliance.
- Ms. Kate Howard, government affairs and public relations administrator at ADJC, provided an update on agency operations related to Covid-19.
 - Access to the Adobe Mountain School campus has been restricted for essential staff only. Everyone entering the facility is screened for symptoms.
 - On March 16, family visitation and volunteer services were suspended. During this period, phone and video conferencing using Google Meet has been used, with assistance for families from parole officers. The department plans to resume in-person visitation June 16 with enhanced sanitation and distancing practices in place to minimize risk.

- Youth entering the facility are quarantined for 14 days to monitor for symptoms. Quarantined youth receive the same level of care and services as youth housed in general population. Due to the 14-day quarantine, intake has been moved from once per week to every two weeks.
- Testing for Covid-19 is occurring on site for youth and staff. So far, four staff and two youth have been diagnosed positive. Once these youth were found to have contracted the virus, they were separated together from the general population.
- Ms. Wodraska asked whether the educational programs have changed since implementing procedures to minimize risk. Ms. Howard advised youth continue to be educated face to face with their instructor, with an option for distance learning using Google Meet from the youth's housing unit.
- Ms. Nannetti thanked the presenters for their innovation adapting to the current situation, and stated she is hopeful that youth will soon have contact with their families again.

FY 2019 Compliance Monitoring Report

- Mr. Selover presented on the fiscal year 2019 compliance monitoring report for the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act core requirements.
- An overview of the compliance rates for Deinstitutionalization of Status Offenders, Separation from Adult Inmates and Removal of Juveniles from Adult Jails and Lockups was provided, and included specific information on the makeup of the total violations and the agencies that committed them.
- Mr. Selover reported the rates of disparities for youth decision points within the juvenile justice system. Mr. Selover stated the data table provided is what the state provides OJJDP as a component of reporting on the Racial and Ethnic Disparities requirement.
- Mr. Hood asked for clarification on the rates reported, as the rate for the previous year appeared higher than the maximum allowable. Mr. Selover stated the maximum allowable rate fluctuates based on a formula calculated by OJJDP each year. The rate from 2018 was under the maximum rate set that year.
- Ms. Dodge asked why the Casa Grande Police Department has experienced high rates of violations over the past two years. Mr. Selover acknowledge their rates are high compared with other departments in jurisdictions with higher populations, and stated more work needs to be conducted with this agency to determine why violations are occurring and how this can be addressed. Mr. Selover advised the next compliance visit conducted onsite with this agency will focus on this issue.

Upcoming Meeting Dates

- Ms. Nannetti asked members to review the emailed list of upcoming meeting dates and to add the dates to their calendars.

 - Ms. Wodraska moved to adjourn the meeting.
 - Alice Bustillo seconded the motion.

Be Awesome Mentoring

“It is better to build boys than to mend men.” -
Truett Cathy

Mentorship services we provide

- Individual : 1 on 1 meetings between a mentee and a mentor. Traditionally school based.
- Group: mentees meet with two mentors and each other during school intercession and after school.
- Community Based : Maricopa Police Department hosts and participate with community events for youth grades 6-12 and build positive relationships with local youth.
- Mentoring during Covid: Mentors began using virtual platforms to connect with mentees. This includes phone calls, text messages, online gaming sessions, zoom calls. Groups were also continued through online gaming, zoom meets and zoom field trips, drive in movie, and micro summer groups.

Mentoring Matters

- Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) 85% of children who exhibit behavioral problems come from fatherless homes.
- National Principals Report on the State of High Schools reveals that 71% of high school dropouts are from fatherless homes.
- Rainbows for All God's Children brings to light that 75% of adolescents in chemical abuse centers are in homes with no father.
- Census Fatherhood Statistics which stated "children who live absent their biological fathers are, on average, at least two or three times more likely to be poor, to use drugs, to experience educational, health, emotional and behavioral problems, to be victims of child abuse, and to engage in criminal behavior than their peers who live with their married biological (or adoptive) parents."

Youth with mentors also show lower rates of teen pregnancy, suicide, gang violence, drug use, high school dropout rates and more likely to improve their grades.

Simple but Profound

- 86% report they can trust police
- 50% of mentees saw their GPA increase b/w 1st and 3rd quarter
- 40% improved attendance when 1st quarter is compared with 3rd quarter.
- 45% improved social competencies improved when 1st quarter is compared to 3rd quarter.

Challenges

- Slow referrals at some school sites
- Mentoring can be conflated with tutoring
- Community members will ask how to get involved and it's a school-based program.
- Covid 19 closures and event cancelations
